Fine Free for the Holidays

The holiday season is upon us, and we have a gift for you! From December through February, we are waiving overdue fines!

What this means for our patrons:

- You are no longer charged ten cents a day when you bring an item back late. There is one exception, and that is the hobby and STEAM kits that are available for checkout.
 - Don't worry, you can still renew books!
 - Please keep in mind that if an item is damaged or lost in your care, you will be charged a fee for this. Books are considered "lost" if you have not returned them within 30 days of the due date.
- Happy Holidays from the Springville Library!

Holiday Hours

Here is a list of our holiday closings:

Tuesday, December 24, Christmas Eve
Wednesday, December 25, Christmas Day
Tuesday, December 31, New Years Eve
Wednesday, January 1, New Years Day

In the event that we are closed for bad weather, it will be announced on our Facebook page, and posted to the KCRG Weather Closings Site. We hope you have warm and happy holidays!

Mariah's Corner

Discovering that there is a whole new world under your feet would be shocking for anyone. But for Artemis Fowl, it's simply another day. Being a 12 year old genius is one thing, but being a CRIMINAL mastermind is another. As Artemis decides to pull off the biggest robbery in history, to restore his family fortune. He finds not all things are what they seem.

Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer is a book that takes you into the mind of a rather small criminal. I found it so interesting to see things through the criminal's perspective. If you enjoy a good book with some surprising plot twists I highly recommend this. Though you may have to search waaay in the back of the library to find it. Books like to hide. -Mariah Smith

An Afternoon with Sam Weis

We have a unique program for you this month, a visit from an artist, musician, and author, all in one! Sam Weis grew up in Eastern Iowa and will be visiting the library on Saturday, December 28 at 1:30 PM to discuss art, music, and books. Stop in for a lively conversation with this creative and talented lady!
